

The Map Change Lifecycle Overview

A flood map change typically takes 36 months or more. Communicating about the process and insurance options early and often is essential to ensuring residents take action and secure coverage.

